RE: CCRB Executive Director Honored by Washington University

CCRB Executive Director Honored by Washington University

St. Charles, MISSOURI – On April 3, 2019, The Brown School at Washington University in St. Louis recognized Bruce Sowatsky, Executive Director of the Community and Children’s Resource Board (CCRB) of St. Charles County, as a Distinguished Alumni for his work in St. Charles County and across Missouri. Each year, the Brown School honors remarkable alumni who create positive change for people around the globe.

Bruce Sowatsky has been with the CCRB since 1999 and he assisted St. Charles County and nine other Missouri counties in passing localized taxes for children’s mental health services. In 2007, Sowatsky brought together community members to create the Shower of Love, a baby care collection drive, which has raised $966,000 for babies and teen parents in St. Charles County. His dedication, insight, and immense heart for children are visible in everything he does. The children of St. Charles County have benefited greatly from Sowatsky’s commitment and leadership.

The Community and Children’s Resource Board (CCRB) is the administrator the Community Children’s Service Fund, a fund created when St. Charles County passed a 1/8-cent sales tax measure in November 2004. The funds are dedicated for services to St. Charles County children and youth, and are awarded to local agencies to provide services that address the growing unmet mental health needs of our community youth.
